

Overview of School Closing/ Repurposing Recommendation

March 1, 2016

High School

- Close Harrison High School beginning with current HHS eighth graders being assigned to attend Farmington High School or North Farmington High School beginning with the 2016-17 school year.
- Current HHS students would continue at HHS for the 2016-2017 and 2017-18 school years.
- The current HHS freshman class would be the final HHS graduating class and would be moved together to complete the senior year at either FHS or NFHS as a school within a school.
- Farmington Central High School will be relocated to the Harrison site. It is anticipated that this will be done in the 2017-18 school year.
- The International Baccalaureate will be moved into Farmington High School with full implementation of this move occurring in the 2018-19 school year.

Middle School

- Dunckel Middle School would close as a middle school and be repurposed into a K-8 STEAM Academy beginning in the fall of 2017.

Elementary School/Early Childhood Programs

- The current site housing Highmeadow Common Campus will close at the end of the 2016-17 school year with the Highmeadow program moving to Dunckel and changing to a STEAM K-8 Academy.
- The current Highmeadow site would then be repurposed to house the District's early childhood program (combining the current programs currently located at Alameda Early Childhood Center and Farmington Community School.)

Community Forums

Thursday, March 3 • 7 p.m. • Maxfield Education Center, 32789 W. Ten Mile, Farmington

Saturday, March 5 • 10 a.m. • Dunckel Middle School, 32800 W. 12 Mile Rd., Farmington Hills

The Board of Education is expected to vote on this recommendation at their Board Meeting on Tuesday, March 15, 7 p.m., Farmington High School, 32000 Shiawassee, Farmington