Parking Regulations are to achieve a safe, orderly parking area. Drivers who choose not to abide by these regulations will result in the loss of permit and parking privileges. (Please read and sign.)

1. All cars entering the HHS student lot must properly register with the front office and display a parking permit. Permits cannot be transferred to another student.
2. Students may park only in the student parking lot and will park within lines, using only one space.
3. Maximum speed on property is 10 MPH, no reckless driving.
4. Students must check out through the attendance office before leaving the parking lot during the school day. Students authorized to leave school may not take an unauthorized student.
5. No sitting in cars or visiting cars, once parked, during the school day without administration approval to get book, homework, etc.
6. Marching Band uses the north end of the lot (August –December) after school. Students must move their car from this area by 2:40 pm each day.
7. School Board Policy gives high school administrators the right to search vehicles and their contents when parked on school property. Failure to submit to such a search constitutes insubordination and may result in permanent suspension of parking pass, suspension from school and other disciplinary action as appropriate.
8. Violations to the Student Code of Conduct may result in loss of parking privileges.
