The new lockers are a welcome addition and they look great on the walls.

New grid and LED lighting is getting wrapped up. The halls are bright and energetic with the new colors.

Here is the new walk and main entrance concrete. Look to the left and we can see the new administrative offices lobby window.

Upstairs in the Mezzanine, the new chiller pumps are getting brought up on line. The chiller is set and getting piped as well.

Markerboards, solar tubes, and damper enclosures shown.
