

America to me

Witness it through their eyes.

"America to Me," a 10-part series, is a documentary by Academy Award-nominated filmmaker and Oak Park resident Steve James designed to put the charged state of race, culture, and education in America in the spotlight by focusing on Oak Park's River Forest High School during the 2015-16 school year.

Farmington
PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Farmington African American
Parent Network

EDUCATE | EMPOWER | ENERGIZE

Be Part of the Conversation!

PTA Council and FAAPN have teamed up with Farmington Public Schools to host a series of symposiums surrounding the show "America to Me." Each symposium within the series will include a one-hour viewing of an episode followed by a one-hour dialogue.

Symposiums will take place from 6 - 8 p.m. and will be located at Maxfield Education Center, 32789 West Ten Mile, Farmington

October 1, 10, 15 & 22

November 7, 14 & 27

December 17

January 8 & 17, 2019

Learn More: <https://www.americatomerealtalk.com/>